Budget Advisory Commission Commissioner Vacancy Announcement

The City Auditor is now accepting applications to fill one Auditor-appointed Commissioner position, to begin immediately, as part of its fifteen-member volunteer citizen board. This position will remain open until filled.

Background

The Budget Advisory Commission is a fifteen-member board of volunteers dedicated to advising the City's elected officials on expenditures, revenues, and financial policies. The BAC's advice generally takes the form of informational reports submitted to the Finance & Management Committee of City Council. Generally, the BAC:

- research's topics deemed important to the fiscal health of the City,
- encourages public participation and input into the City's fiscal decision making, and
- improves the transparency and accountability of City fiscal information and decision making.

Commission Members

Commissioners are appointed for a term of 3 years. Each member of the Commission must be an Oakland resident. Eight Commissioners are appointed respectively by each City Council member. Three Commissioners are appointed by the Mayor. Two commissioners are appointed by the City Council Finance Committee. One Commissioner is appointed by the City Auditor and the Chair of the Economic and Workforce Development Committee. Once appointed, a Commissioner is expected to participate in monthly meetings and occasional subcommittee meetings to produce relevant reports to present to City Council.

Desired Skills & Abilities

Commissioners should represent a variety of backgrounds and professions, so the Commission provides a well-rounded perspective on Oakland City government, community building and engagement, leadership, program administration, and policies related to municipal finance, ethics, and transparency. Specifically, a Commissioner should be able to do the following:

- Read, analyze, and understand written information and make decisions based on the information.
- Listen to public input, assess community needs, and make decisions about how to best accomplish the Commission's goals.
- Understand the context in which the Commission operates within City government and the broader community.
- Communicate orally during a public televised meeting.
- Collaborate effectively with other Commissioners, the public, City officials, and staff.
- Serve with fairness, openness, honesty, and integrity.
- Identify personal conflicts of interest or other factors that could lead to actual or perceived improper influence.
- Adhere to all Commission-related laws and policies, including but not limited to the Oakland City Charter, Oakland Government Ethics Act, and Oakland Sunshine Ordinance.

In addition, all Commissioners are required to complete a Form 700 – Statement of Economic Interests annually, disclosing information such as one's financial interests in investments, property, income, and gifts (to view a copy of a Form 700, contact Commission staff or visit www.fppc.ca.gov)
